

Agreement regarding e-publication of Work

Send signed physical copy of the form to the student administration for registration

Agreement regarding e-publication of a degree project between Chalmers tekniska högskola AB, registration number 556479-5598, hereinafter called Chalmers, and the author of a Master's degree thesis carried out at Chalmers, hereinafter called the Author and the Work respectively, wish to publish the Work electronically in order to make it available on the Internet and have entered into the following Agreement.

§1 Assignment of rights

In accordance with this Agreement, the Author grants Chalmers a non-exclusive right for a non-exclusive purpose to publish the Work electronically and to make it available on the Internet. No payment will pass between the parties by reason of this Agreement.

§2 Chalmers undertakings

Publication takes place in the format in which the Work was submitted to Chalmers (text, graphics, images etc). Chalmers is under no obligation to proofread the Work or check that it concurs with any printed original. Chalmers may carry out technical configuration of the Work which for technical reasons is necessary to make the Work available. Chalmers is entitled to deal with the project in accordance with current public access legislation. Chalmers shall take reasonable technical and administrative steps to ensure that in its published form the Work is not distorted in any way.

§3 Author's undertakings

The Author certifies that he/she is the author of the Work and that the project does not contain text, images or other material where publication would be in contravention of the Copyright Act. When assigning rights to the Work to a third party (such as a publisher or a Company) the Author shall make this Agreement known and shall make provisions for Chalmers' rights in accordance with this Agreement. If the Author has entered into a copyright agreement with a third party regarding the Work, the Author hereby certifies that he/she holds the rights or has secured the required consent from the third party to permit Chalmers to store and make available the Work electronically on the Internet.

§4 Assurance of indemnification

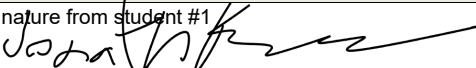

In the event the Author acts or fails to act in accordance with this Agreement and thus causes Chalmers to incur costs or loss, the Author shall indemnify Chalmers and release Chalmers from all liability in this respect.

§5 Cessation of the Agreement

The Author is entitled to give written notice of termination of the Agreement. Chalmers shall cease to make the project available within one month of receipt of notice.

Title of Work:

YES, I accept that the Work is published electronically in Chalmers Open Digital Repository (ODR) according to the above applicable agreement
NO, I do not allow the Work to be published electronically - Please note that an ODR record with details of the Work without full text is always registered

Date:	Signature from student #1 	Clarification of signature:
-------	--	-----------------------------

YES, I accept that the Work is published electronically in Chalmers Open Digital Repository (ODR) according to the above applicable agreement
NO, I do not allow the Work to be published electronically - Please note that an ODR record with details of the Work without full text is always registered

Date:	Signature from student #2 (when applicable)	Clarification of signature:
-------	---	-----------------------------